

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

+ Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.

+ Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.

+ Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.

+ Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

[1] General Taylor proceeded in 1811 to join the 22nd Dragoons in the East Indies, where he served until their return to Europe and disbandment, 25th Oct. 1820. He was in the field in 1815 and 16, and during the whole of the Mahratta war in 1817-19; the published official records show that his conduct was conspicuous in the Brigade Cavalry actions of Bucktowlie and of Nagnore, and in that of Ashta (20th Feb. 1818), the enemy having charged, overthrew one Regiment and cut down the General commanding, he, as Brigade Major, incurred the responsibility of countermanding the retreat, of ordering measures which terminated in the entire defeat of the Peishwar, the death of his Commander in Chief (Gokla), and he rescued the Rajah of Satarrah, the influential events that terminated the war. At the siege of Capaul-droog, he commanded a Battery at the storm (13th May 1819), he blew open the first gate with a galloper gun of the 22nd Dragoons, and heading the Forlorn Hope, he stormed in succession the five distinct circles of fortifications, every man and officer of his party being either killed or wounded, he received at the summit of that strong hill fort, at the moment of success in its capture, a shot through his lungs and body that killed the Grenadier behind him. The Governor General of India specially recommended him to favourable consideration for his services in India. In 1823-24 he was employed in the Cape Cavalry against the Caffres, and was recommended for promotion by the Governor and Commander in Chief. In Jan. 1841 he was relieved from a bullet which had been in his body since 1819. In Aug. 1846 his life was imperilled from a surgical operation consequent upon the passage of some cloth driven into him by a shot. In Nov. 1848 he was relieved from a piece of bone broken in his body by a shot. From April 1854 to Dec. 1857 he was a Colonel on the Staff at the Cape of Good Hope, where as a Brigadier at a "period of peculiar difficulty and imminently threatened war" he commanded a large force in Kaffraria with approbation and thanks publicly recorded. From April 1860 to April 1861 he was Commander of the Forces and Lieut.Governor of Jamaica and its Dependencies. In 1827 he was sent to England from Malta to establish discipline in a corps that had fired at and nearly killed their Adjutant, their insubordination sustained by a turbulent mob at a period of popular excitement. He took command and the Battalion shot him three times on the public parade, they fired into his windows and shot through the cheek a field aide who stood behind him. Without calling in other Troops he suppressed the mutiny, and alone he overawed the fury of the mob. The approbation of his Major General was submitted by his Lieut.General to the Horse Guards, and elicited through the Adjutant General the Sovereign's record that "the decided and necessary punishment to which he had resorted had effectually repressed the spirit that prevailed when he assumed the command."

[2] Major Dunbar served with the 34th Regiment in the Crimea from the 12th July 1855, including the siege and fall of Sebastopol, and assault of the Redan on the 8th Sept. (Medal with Clasp, and Turkish Medal). Also in the Indian campaigns in 1857-59, including the actions at Cawnpore on 26th 27th and 28th Nov. 1857, siege and capture of Lucknow, relief of Azimghur, defeat of the rebels at Bootwul, and affair at Bhowanie (Medal with Clasp).

[3] Major Bromhead accompanied Sir Garnet Wolseley to the Gold Coast in September 1873 on special service, and served throughout the Ashanti war of 1873-74. Was sent as Special Commissioner first to the King of Eastern Assin and then to the King of Abra. Was Staff Officer to Colonel Festing at the action of the 27th October near Dunquah. Commanded the Abras at the repulse of the Ashanti Army at Abrakrampa during the 5th and 6th November 1873. Commanded the reconnaissance in force of the 8th November. Afterwards served with Russell's Regiment at the capture and destruction of Adubiassie, battle of Amoaful, capture and destruction of Becquah, advanced guard engagement at Jarbinbah, skirmishes and ambuscade affairs between Adwabin and the river Ordah, battle of Ordahsu and capture of Coomassie (mentioned in despatches, Brevet of Major, Medal with Clasp).

[6] Major Much commanded detachments 2nd Battalion 24th Regt., Indian Naval Brigade, and Madras Sappers and Miners on an expedition to the Little Andaman Island on the 6th 7th and 8th May 1867, including an engagement with the savages on the 7th May. Was thanked by the Commander in Chief in India; commended by the Government of India; and services specially noted by order of H.R.H. the Field Marshal Commanding in Chief in a letter dated Horse Guards 27th December 1868, addressed to Sir William Mansfield.

[10] Quarter Master Charters served in the Punjaub campaign of 1848-49, including the passage of the Chenab and battles of Sadoolapore and Chillianwallah—severely wounded (Medal with Clasp).

Continuation of Notes to 25th Foot.

[4] Major Cameron served with the 72nd Highlanders in the Crimea from 13th June 1855, including the expedition to Kertch, siege and fall of Sebastopol, and attack of the 18th June (Medal with Clasp, and Turkish Medal). From the 9th Oct. 1855 to the 8th March 1856 he served as Assistant Engineer to the Highland Division. Served in the Indian campaign and received the Victoria Cross for conspicuous bravery on the 30th March 1858 at Kotah, in having headed a small party of men and attacked a body of armed fanatic rebels strongly posted in a loop-holed house with one narrow entrance; stormed the house and killed three rebels in single combat, having lost half of one hand by a stroke from a tulwar and received two bayonet wounds; was also present in the actions of Bunsas and Pertabghur, at which latter he commanded two Companies of the 72nd, and was mentioned in despatches (Medal with Clasp).

[6] Captain Hope served with the 7th Fusiliers in the Crimea from 7th July 1855, including the siege and fall of Sebastopol and assault of the Redan on the 8th Sept. (Medal with Clasp, and Turkish Medal.)

[9] Captain Pumfrett served the Crimean campaign of 1854-55, and was present at the affair of Bulgamak, battle of Balaklava, Inkerman, and Tchernaya, siege and fall of Sebastopol (Medal with four Clasps, and Turkish Medal).

[10] Quarter Master Geoghegan served with the 89th Regiment in the Crimea from 5th Jan. 1855, including the siege and fall of Sebastopol, and attacks of the 18th June and 8th Sept. (Medal with Clasp, and Turkish Medal). Served also during the suppression of the Indian mutiny in 1857-59, including the pursuit of the rebels under Tantia Topee in Rajpootana and Central Asia.
